- If you are tracking terribly near the end of a round, acting last allows you to make a contrarian bet (e.g., doubling down when others remain) to make up ground.

2. Difference Management

In a short competition format, difference is a powerful enemy. Gamers can not simply wait out a cold streak. Rivals need to know when to take calculated threats-- such as doubling down on soft overalls or splitting low sets-- even when instinct screams warn. On the other hand, when holding a commanding chip lead, protecting those chips by playing conservatively becomes critical.

3. Bankroll and Bet Sizing

- Watch on the leaderboards: Always know where you stand relative to the cut-off line.
- Avoid stagnation: If you are sitting in a certifying position with only 2 hands left, stop wagering large amounts. Secure the property.
- Hostility when behind: If you are outside the cash with three hands remaining, standard bets won't save you. You must scale up your wagers to capture the leaders.
