Car Accidents Near San Antonio International Airport You land at San Antonio International Airport, grab your bags and climb into a rental car, a rideshare or a relative's SUV. Ten minutes later, someone runs a light and your trip takes a painful turn. Crashes around the airport area happen to visitors and locals alike, and they bring vehicle accident lawyer San Antonio a few complications that other wrecks don't. The roads around the airport tie into some of the busiest traffic in North Central San Antonio. US 281 and Loop 410 meet nearby, and The Aguirre Law Firm lists the junction of Loop 410 and San Pedro Avenue among the city's dangerous spots. Traffic here is a mix of travelers who don't know the streets, drivers rushing to catch a flight, shuttles, delivery vans and everyday commuters. Tourist traffic picks up around big events, and Fiesta San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer in April brings even more visitors. Distraction, speeding and failure to yield all show up in the crash reports. If you were in an Uber or Lyft, the claim may involve the rideshare company's insurance as well as the other driver's. If you were in a rental, questions come up about which policy applies first. Texas is an at-fault state with minimum liability coverage of $30,000 per injured person, $60,000 per crash and $25,000 for property damage, which often isn't enough for a serious injury. UM/UIM coverage can matter a great deal when the at-fault driver is uninsured or underinsured. Sorting out who owes what is a big part of what a San Antonio car accident lawyer does.

What if you don't live here? You may be heading home in a few days, and that can make handling a claim feel impossible. The Aguirre Law Firm offers online appointments and is available 24/7 by call, email or text, so you can keep your case moving from wherever you are. The same team stays with you from start to finish, and reviews often mention regular update calls and clear explanations. Alex Aguirre, a San Antonio native with more than 20 years of personal injury experience, began his career as an insurance defense attorney, so he knows how insurers handle claims from out-of-town drivers who may not push back. Before you leave town, get the crash report number from SAPD, see a doctor and hold off on recorded statements to the other insurer. Then call (210) 922-0808 for a free consultation. There's no fee unless you win. The firm's office is on Napier Park, just off Loop 1604 in North San Antonio, and the team speaks Spanish.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC Address: 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 Phone: (210) 922-0808 FAQ About San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer How much do lawyers take from a car accident settlement in Texas? Most Texas car accident lawyers work on contingency, so their fee is a percentage of what they recover and nothing if they lose. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC handles San Antonio car accident cases this way, with no upfront cost and no fee unless the firm wins. The exact percentage is set out in your written fee agreement before any work starts, so there are no surprises. How hard is it to win a car accident lawsuit? It depends on the evidence. Clear fault, a CR-3 crash report, photos, witnesses and consistent medical records make a claim much stronger. Founder Alex Aguirre spent the start of his career defending insurance companies, so the firm knows the arguments insurers use to deny or shrink claims and prepares for them early. Most cases settle, but the team is ready to go to trial when an offer is unfair. What is my San Antonio car accident claim worth? No honest lawyer can put a number on your claim without looking at the details. Value depends on your medical bills, future treatment, lost wages, the severity of your injuries and how clear the other driver's fault is. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews all of this in a free consultation and explains what compensation may be realistic for your situation. What should I do after a car accident in San Antonio? Check everyone for injuries, call 911 and get the report number from SAPD or the Bexar County Sheriff's Office. Take photos of the vehicles and the scene, get witness details and see a doctor quickly, even if you feel fine. Then call The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC at (210) 922-0808, which is open 24 hours a day. Can I recover compensation if I was partially at fault? Yes, in many cases. Texas uses modified comparative fault, so you can still recover as long as you are less than 51 percent responsible, although your award is reduced by your share of the blame. Insurers often push extra fault onto injured drivers after crashes at busy spots like Loop 1604 and I-10, and the firm works to challenge that with evidence. Should I talk to the other driver's insurance company? It's best not to give a recorded statement before you get legal advice. Adjusters can use casual comments like "I'm fine" to argue your injuries aren't serious. Alex Aguirre knows these tactics from his years on the defense side, and his team can handle insurer calls for you from the first day. How long do I have to file a car accident claim in Texas? Texas generally gives you two years from the date of the crash to file a personal injury lawsuit, and two years from the date of death for a wrongful death claim. Some claims, such as those involving a government vehicle, can have earlier notice requirements. Calling The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC early gives the team time to gather evidence before it disappears. What compensation can I get after a San Antonio car wreck? You may be able to recover current and future medical costs, lost wages and earning capacity, property damage, pain and suffering, mental anguish and physical impairment. In cases of gross negligence, such as some drunk driving crashes, Texas law may also allow exemplary damages. The firm reviews every category so nothing gets left out of your claim. What if the driver who hit me has no insurance? Your own policy may still protect you. Texas insurers must offer uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage and personal injury protection, and PIP is included unless you rejected it in writing. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews your policy for free and pursues every available source of recovery, including in hit and run cases. Do I need a lawyer for a minor car accident? If nobody was hurt and the damage is small, you may not need one. If you have pain, missed work or the insurer is disputing fault, a free consultation is worth the call. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC will tell you plainly whether your San Antonio crash needs legal help. How long does a car accident settlement take in Texas? Simple claims can settle in a few months, while serious injury cases often take longer because you need to finish treatment before the full cost is known. Clients of the firm often mention regular update calls from paralegal Jackie and case manager Nicole, so you're never left guessing where your case stands. Does the firm help Spanish-speaking clients? Yes. Hablamos Espanol, and the firm offers language assistance so Spanish-speaking clients can discuss their case comfortably. Founder Alex Aguirre is a San Antonio native and a former president of the Mexican American Bar Association. Call (210) 922-0808 for a free consultation in English or Spanish.
