Your in-laws land at Roanoke-Blacksburg Regional Airport on Friday, the guest room is buried under boxes, and nobody has looked behind the toilet in months. It happens to everyone. One-time house cleaning in Roanoke is built for exactly that moment, and The Happy Housekeepers has been rescuing Roanoke Valley households before big visits, holidays and celebrations since 1979.

A one-time visit is not a quick wipe down. The crew works through the same thorough list used for recurring customers: furniture dusted or polished, carpets vacuumed, hard floors mopped, the kitchen given a complete clean-up and each bathroom given a total clean-up. Window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans are dusted, cobwebs come down from corners and stairwells, and waste baskets are emptied so the house feels ready for company.

Because a home that has gone a while More helpful hints without professional attention needs more effort, one-time jobs often benefit from specialized add-ons. The company can clean the interior of ovens and refrigerators, wash walls and woodwork, clean light fixtures and even tackle basements. If you are expecting a crowd for a wedding weekend or a reunion, those extras can make the difference between a house that looks clean and one that actually feels fresh.

The Happy Housekeepers | 5145 Starkey Rd, Roanoke, VA 24018 | (540) 774-4299

Scheduling a one-time clean starts with a free, no-obligation estimate, so you will know the scope before the day arrives. The company is licensed, bonded and insured and holds a BBB blue seal. Plenty of customers who started with a single visit before a holiday decided afterward to switch to a weekly, bi-weekly or monthly plan, but there is never any pressure to do so.

Guests notice different things than we do. They see the guest bathroom you rarely use, the ceiling fan above the dining table and the baseboards along the hallway to their room. A one-time clean focuses on those high-visibility spots so the house makes the right first impression. Many customers also ask the crew to concentrate on the kitchen, since that is where everyone gathers during a holiday, and a spotless stovetop and clean refrigerator shelves make cooking for a crowd a lot more pleasant.
