The Top Ten Marketing Tips You Dont Want To Overlook

The Top Ten Marketing Tips You Dont Want To Overlook1. Combine Emotion and LogicConsumers buy because the want to experience the benefits of the product or service you have to offer. Evoke those feeling that your clients will experience once they have the product in their hands... and youve made a sale. It isnt until after the water damage restoration san antonio sale that they want to justify the purchase. Prepare them with the logical aspects of the purchase before they get the after-the-sale-blues.2. Apply The 80/20 Advertising PrincipalYou never want to put yourself out on a limb when you are experimenting with the market. That could spell disaster! Keep 80 percent of your advertising budget working tried and true methods, while you mine for gold with the remaining 20 percent. 3. Go For Dynamic Small AdsDo you need to cut advertising expenses? Youll be happy to know that cutting down on the size of an ad doesnt mean youll be trimming your profits as well! Bigger isnt always better. Think about this... small ads have less potential for distracting your readers from the main point. That could be the blessing in disguise youve been looking for.4. Market With PostcardsPostcards are personal, quick to read, and make an impact. Compare them to other advertisements you receive in the mail... If youre like me, you probably dont even know what they look like. When I identify them as advertisements, I automatically pitch them... without opening the envelope. Postcards carry high-impact messages, and guarantee a 100 percent level of consumer exposure.5. Call To ActionThe call to action is one of the most important parts of your advertising copy. Dont wimp out on it! Spend time combining words and phrases to get the one with just the right impact. Remember, youre trying to get the reader out of his chair ready to buy. Itll take a stimulating sales copy to do the trick.6. Surprise, Surprise!We all like surprises. Keep one on the back burner, ready to present near the end of a sale. You'll be sweetening the deal, and your prospective buyer will be pleased!7. water damage restoration Send a Thank You.Have you ever received a personal thank you from a place of business after you purchased a product? Hey, it makes you feel appreciated. The impact of a hand-written or personalize thank you lasts long after the newness of the product wears off. The next time you head out to buy... yeah, youll be going back!
