Factors to Consider When Renting Portable Toilets

Before you proceed with reserving portable restrooms in Pittsburgh, there are several factors to keep in mind. First, consider the number of guests or workers. A general rule of thumb is to provide one toilet for every 50 people. However, events that last longer than a few hours may require additional units. Additionally, think about accessibility — will you need units that cater to individuals with disabilities? Lastly, you should account for the duration of your rental and any delivery options available. TitanLux Toilet Solutions can assist you with all these considerations, ensuring a hassle-free renting experience.
