A Deep Dive into the Bonus Rounds

The piece de resistance of Crazy Time isn't simply the numbered sections-- it's the 4 elaborate benefit video games. Experiencing these in the demonstration mode is vital due to the fact that each runs on a totally different principle:

1. Coin Flip

This is the most regular reward round. A coin with a red side and a blue side is turned by a device. Each side is appointed a random multiplier before the flip. Whichever side lands face up awards the gamer that multiplier.

2. Money Hunt

Think of a giant shooting gallery screen featuring 108 random multipliers concealed behind different signs (like a cactus, a target, or a sheriff's badge). The player utilizes a virtual crosshair to aim and shoot at a sign, exposing the multiplier hidden behind it.

3. Pachinko

Influenced by the traditional Japanese arcade video game, this round features an enormous wall filled with pegs. The host drops a puck from the top, and it bounces down arbitrarily up until it lands in among the slots at the bottom, each including a multiplier. If the puck arrive on a "Double," all multipliers on the board double, and the puck is dropped once again.

4. Crazy Time

This is the ultimate benefit round, accessed through a red door behind the main wheel. Gamers are carried into a lively, virtual world featuring a huge, colorful wheel with 64 segments and 3 flappers (Green, Blue, and Yellow). Gamers select their flapper. The wheel spins, and whatever multiplier it stops on is granted. If it strikes "Double" or "Triple," all multipliers increase, and the wheel spins again-- scaling approximately a staggering 20,000 x max win.
