Never bet more than you can manage to lose. Divide your overall crypto bankroll into smaller sized sessions (e.g., 100 to 200 units). This guarantees that a string of bad luck on high-risk settings will not erase your funds instantly.

The Low-Risk Grind

If your objective is to stretch your crypto and delight in extended gameplay, choose 8 rows on Low Risk. The ball is statistically much more most likely to land in the center slots, returning your bet or offering small multipliers, keeping you in the game longer.

The High-Risk Moonshot

For thrill-seekers, setting the board to 16 rows and High Risk produces a lottery-style experience. The vast bulk of drops will yield a loss or a little return, but you are betting that unusual bounce to the far edge that activates a 500x or 1000x multiplier.
