Comprehending the Stages of Getting a Driving Licence

Before diving into the online application process, it is necessary to understand that obtaining an irreversible driving licence is not a single-step treatment. Most transport authorities follow a two-tier system:

1. Learner's Licence (LL): A short-lived licence legitimate for 6 months, provided after clearing a fundamental roadway rules test. This enables the applicant to practice driving on public roadways under the supervision of a licensed driver.
2. Long-term Driving Licence (DL): The final file issued after the applicant shows competency in driving an automobile during a practical driving test.

Applicants should first hold a legitimate Learner's Licence for a minimum of 30 days before they end up being eligible to obtain an irreversible driving licence.

Prerequisites Before You Apply Online

To guarantee a smooth online application experience, candidates need to keep particular requirements ready:

- A stable internet connection and a working device (computer system, laptop, or tablet).
- Scanned copies of important identity and address evidence.
- Digital passport-size photos.
- A signed up mobile number linked to Aadhaar (suggested for e-KYC authentication).
- Access to a printer for application receipts.
