Poplar grows fast and straight on the moist ground near Johns Creek's creeks, which makes it tall and top-heavy. It also rots from the inside while Go here looking sound, so a removal can reveal far less solid wood than the trunk suggested. Expect shedding limbs before the removal itself. Poplar notes at %LINK%.