A Deep Dive into the Bonus Rounds

The main destination of Crazy Time isn't just the numbered sectors-- it's the four fancy bonus offer video games. Experiencing these in the demo mode is important since each operates on an absolutely various concept:

1. Coin Flip

This is the most frequent reward round. A coin with a red side and a blue side is flipped by a machine. Each side is designated a random multiplier before the flip. Whichever side lands face up awards the player that multiplier.

2. Cash Hunt

Picture a huge shooting gallery screen featuring 108 random multipliers hidden behind various symbols (like a cactus, a target, or a sheriff's badge). The gamer uses a virtual crosshair to aim and contend a symbol, revealing the multiplier hidden behind it.

3. Pachinko

Inspired by the conventional Japanese arcade video game, this round includes a huge wall filled with pegs. The host drops a puck from the top, and it bounces down randomly till it lands in one of the slots at the bottom, each consisting of a multiplier. If the puck arrive on a "Double," all multipliers on the board double, and the puck is dropped once <https://bitz.io/games/crazy-time> again.

4. Crazy Time

This is the supreme reward round, accessed through a red door behind the main wheel. Players are carried into a dynamic, virtual world including a huge, vibrant wheel with 64 segments and three flappers (Green, Blue, and Yellow). Players select their flapper. The wheel spins, and whatever multiplier it stops on is granted. If it hits "Double" or "Triple," all multipliers increase, and the wheel spins once again-- scaling approximately an incredible 20,000 x max win.
