Understanding the Hungarian Identity Card (Személyi Igazolvány)

In Hungary, the official identity card is called the személyi igazolvány. Over current years, Hungary has transitioned to a modern, biometric smart card. This card does more than just prove identity; it typically includes features for electronic signatures and can even act as a Medicare (TAJ) number holder or tax card, depending on the particular issuance variation.

Depending upon citizenship status and residency rights, people residing in Hungary will fall into one of a couple of categories when applying for an ID.

Types of Applicants

Applicant Category Description Primary Document Issued Hungarian Citizens People born in Hungary or holding verified Hungarian citizenship. National ID Card (Smart Card) EU/EEA Citizens Citizens of the European Union or European Economic Area residing in Hungary long-lasting. Registration Certificate & & Address Card (ID equivalent for locals) Third-Country Nationals Non-EU/EEA nationals with long-term or short-term house licenses. Residence Permit Card (Acts as the main ID)

Where to Apply for a Hungarian ID Card

The application process can not usually be done online from scratch; applicants should go to a main federal government office personally to have their photo expresszkártya taken and finger prints scanned (for biometric cards).

- Federal Government Windows (Kormányablak): These are the primary service hubs for administrative tasks in Hungary. People can walk in or book a visit online by means of the main government booking portal (Kormányablak Időpontfoglaló).
- Central Office for Administrative and Electronic Public Services: For complicated cases or special scenarios.
- Hungarian Consulates and Embassies: Hungarian citizens living abroad must send their applications through their closest diplomatic objective.

Step-by-Step Application Process

Getting the card follows a standardized treatment created to verify identity and capture biometric data.

1. Book an Appointment: While some workplaces accept walk-ins, wait times can be extensive. Scheduling a consultation at a local Kormányablak is strongly suggested.
2. Gather Required Documents: Bringing the right documents prevents hold-ups. (See the list listed below).
3. Go To the In-Person Appointment:
    - A representative will evaluate the documents.
    - A digital picture will be taken on-site (no need to bring physical passport photos).
    - Finger prints and a digital signature will be recorded (for candidates over a specific age).
4. Pay the Fee: Payment is usually made by means of charge card or cash straight at the office terminal.
5. Track and Receive the Card: The card is generally produced centrally and can either be sent by mail directly to the candidate's domestic address or got at the office where the application was submitted.

Needed Documentation Checklist

To ensure a smooth application, candidates must bring particular documents. Missing a single paper can lead to rejection and the requirement to reschedule.

- Proof of Identity:
    - An ended Hungarian ID card, or
    - A valid Hungarian passport, or
    - A birth certificate (particularly for first-time applicants, such as minors).
- Proof of Citizenship (for first-time applicants):
    - A Hungarian citizenship certificate (állampolgársági bizonyítvány), if citizenship was recently acquired or brought back.
- Address Card (Lakcímkártya):
