Budget means camping or simple lodges outside the gate, shared vehicles and basic meals. Mid-range adds a private vehicle, better tents and inside-park access. Luxury means conservancy camps, low guest numbers and included activities.

The differences that matter are location, vehicle and guiding, not thread count.

Park fees and transfers are similar across tiers, so the get more info spread is mostly accommodation and exclusivity. Tier comparison is at %LINK%.

